

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Rockbridge SPCA depends on the loving and generous support of people like you to help our animal friends.

Our shelter is dedicated to preventing cruelty to animals and the promotion of humane care and treatment.

The shelter provides a home for thousands of animals, homeless and abused, throughout the year. There, they are provided with good care until responsible homes are found for them. If the animals are diseased, severely injured, or unadoptable, they are gently and humanely euthanized.

In addition, the SPCA provides public education through the schools and civic organizations. Activities of the Rockbridge SPCA include Pet Identification Tattoo Clinics, Animal Parades, Animal Pictures with Santa, Pet Shows, fund-raising events, and many others.

The Rockbridge SPCA also serves as the animal pound for Rockbridge Co., Lexington, and Buena Vista.

WE NEED PEOPLE LIKE YOU

Becoming a member of the SPCA

Members receive a quarterly newsletter which tells about current activities and how funds are being used. Membership dues are used to offset the operating costs of the shelter.

Promoting Spaying/Neutering

Be a responsible pet owner by spaying/neutering your pets and encouraging others to do the same.

Reporting Suspected Animal Abuse

Please call the Shelter at 463-5123 if you suspect animal abuse.

Becoming a Volunteer

The SPCA can use your help! If you are interested in helping at the shelter, educating the public, exercising the animals, or fund-raising, please contact the shelter.

Contributing to the SPCA

Give a little or give a lot. Establish a memorial in remembrance of a special person or pet. Please consider the SPCA while doing your estate planning.

Whether it is your time or money, your gift is appreciated by the animals
